

MEDIA LITERACY IN PRACTICE IN FRANCE, SPAIN, PORTUGAL, BELGIUM AND THE NETHERLANDS

M&L SEMINAR || 16 NOVEMBER 2022

Session moderated by Sally Reynolds, Media & Learning Association, Belgium.

In collaboration with the European Digital Media Observatory and part of the wednesday webinar series on Digital and Media Literacy: Exploring Media Literacy at National, Regional and Local Level – the work of EDMO hubs. EDMO has set up national and multinational hubs in Europe to tackle disinformation and one of the core tasks of these hubs is to organise media literacy activities at national or multinational level. This interactive online seminar is to highlight specific aspects of the media literacy work of these hubs and to identify good practice that can be shared by others engaged in media literacy.

Presenters:

Laure Delmoly, International Project Manager, CLEMI (Centre pour l'Éducation aux médias et à l'information), France

Actions of the CLEMI on Information Literacy, presentation's plan:

A national consultation on how to be better informed (European project DE FACTO) along with the main themes of the consultation. With a focus on the production of podcasts on how young people are getting informed.

1. CLEMI: Centre pour l'Éducation aux médias et à l'information
2. DE FACTO: Des clés pour mieux s'informer
3. The Different actions

Julia Conemans, Programme Manager BENEDMO, The Netherlands Institute for Sound & Vision, The Netherlands & Mimi Van Dun, Programme Manager, Netwerk Mediawijsheid.

BENEDMO: how we increase resilience against disinformation:

The media literacy efforts of BENEDMO are aimed at increasing the resilience against disinformation for citizens and (media)professionals in Flanders and the Netherlands. An analysis exploring the the overlap and potential gaps between essential competences and available resources is the starting point to build towards a media literacy repository. Mimi and Julia will share some examples of resources and training modules which are targeted at several target groups.

Julian Conemans' presentation plan:

1. Repository of Media Literacy resources
2. Professionals: Journalists
3. BENEDMO: the different actions

Mini van Dun's presentation plan:

1. Netwerk Mediawijsheid
2. Mediawijsheid Competency Model
3. Best Practices
